

Coming in January 2010:

ACEC/CO Engineering Colorado Magazine

Reach your market and grow your business with an ad in ENGINEERING Colorado, ACEC/Colorado's 8th annual award-winning magazine. This keepsake publication will be delivered along with the January 2010 edition of Mountain States Construction (formerly Colorado Construction magazine). This publication will now reach nearly 10,000 subscribers and distribute across 5 western states.

As an advertiser, you will reach industry leaders in construction and design including public and private owners, developers, municipal, county, state and federal government officials.

Content will include member firm project features, interviews with state legislators, an in-depth look at current state projects, winners of the ACEC/CO 2009 Engineering Excellence Awards and an update on the Denver Zoo, beneficiary of ACEC/CO's 2008 philanthropic event.

Make a statement for your business with an ad in ENGINEERING Colorado.

Additional discounts available with 2010 ad packages. Call for more information.
