SPEAKER

Phil Washington, RTD Interim General Manager

Phillip A. Washington was appointed to the position of Assistant General Manager (AGM), Administration for the Regional Transportation District (RTD), Denver, CO in July 2000. On June 9, 2009, Phil was appointed Interim General Manager of RTD after the resignation of Cal Marsella, who held the position for 14 years.

As RTD's Interim General Manager, Phil is leading the most dynamic transit agency in North America, which is engaged in one of the two largest transit expansion projects in the nation. The twelve-year, multi-billion dollar capital project called FasTracks, will change the face of the Denver metro area and represents the largest transit-only voter approved program in the entire country.
